

CONSTRUCTION (DESIGN & MANAGEMENT) REGULATIONS (CDM) COURSE OUTLINE

WHO IS IT FOR?

This is a half day course designed to provide the necessary knowledge for clients, designers, contractors and workers enabling them to understand what their roles and legal responsibilities are under the CDM Regulations, on both domestic and commercial sites.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The course is a mixture of presentations and practical exercises covering the following topics:

An overview of the Regulations
When projects are notifiable
The responsibilities of the Client, Principal Designer, Designer, Principal Contractor, Contractor and general workers
How to control risks – Principles of Prevention
Welfare provision
Why it is good to communicate
The Health & Safety File
The Construction Phase Plan
How to use the CITB's Wizard App
Where to go for further information

OUTCOMES

By the end of this module you will have an understanding of:

- An overview of the Regulations
- What are Notifiable Projects
- The roles and responsibilities of duty holders
- How to control risks – Principles of Prevention
- Welfare provision required
- The contents of the Health & Safety File
- A Construction Phase Plan

